

Teaching Children to Pray: Ages 4&5

Help children understand how and why we talk to God

Through the use of cut, color and paste projects, your children will not only learn about four types of prayer – they will be challenged and motivated to lead a dynamic prayer life.

The book includes more than 40 activities to help you easily teach four topics of prayer: care, commitment, praise, and thanks.

All books in the series are age specific with reproducible materials.

Check out all four titles in this great series!

